Julie Gail Williams wed to William Daniel Black

The marriage of Miss Julie Gail Williams to Mr. William Daniel Black took place on Saturday, November 27 at 12 noon in West Lynchburg Baptist Church with the Reverend James D. Newman officiating at the double ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest McKinley Williams, Jr. of Lynchburg and the bridegroom is the son of Mr., and Mrs. James Ansel Black, Jr. of Easley,N.C.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown fashioned with a sweetheart neckline trimmed in silk Viennise lace. The fitted waistline extended into a full skirt with lace appliques ending in a cathedral train also trimmed in lace. Straight appliqued sleeves finished in a trimmed cuff.

She wore a cap trimmed in silk Viennise lace from which fell a walking length veil, accented with a blusher. She carried a semi-cascaded Bible bouquet with white orchids, accented with burgundy baby's breath and fern leaves.

Mrs. Byron McCoy, sister of the bride, of Lynchburg, was matron of honor. She wore a burgundy formal gown with gathered waist and spaghetti straps topped by a chiffon jacket gathered at the waist and at the wrists. It was designed with a Victorian neckline, burgundy lace appliques, burgundy pearl buttons and a ribbon belt.

She carried a silk nosegay of burgundy roses, pink baby's breath and greens.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. H. Dean Groome, sister of the bride, of Chesapeake, Mrs. Renee Black, sister-in-law of the groom. of Oklahoma City; Miss Betay Black, sister of the groom of Easley, S.C.; Miss Laura Overstreet, friend of the bride, of Lynchburg; Mrs. Sharon Kirk, friend of the bride, Peachtree City, Ga.

Flower girls were Miss Jennifer Black, cousin of the groom of Birmingham, Ala., and Miss Patricia McCoy, niece of the bride, of Lynchburg. They all wore gowns in the same colors as that of the honor attendant and carried similar bouquets.

Mr. Black served as his son's best man. Groomsmen were Mr. James A. Black III, brother of the groom, of Oklahoma City, Okla.; Mr. Ernest Williams III, brother of the bride, of Lynchburg; Mr. Byron McCoy, brother-inlaw of the bride, of Lynchburg; Mr. Dean Groome, brother-in-law of the bride of Chesapeke; Mr. Mark Gibbs, friend of the groom, of Lynchburg, and Mr. Doug Tinsley, friend of the groom, of Easley, N.C.

Junior ushers were Alan McCoy, Jr., nephew of the bride, of Lynchburg and Graham Black, Jr., cousin of the groom, of Birmingham, Ala.

The parents of the bride entertained with a reception immediately following the ceremony at the Lynchburg Hilton.

The bride is a 1980 graduate of James Madison University and is employed by the Bedford County School System as a teacher at New London Academy.

The groom is a graduate of Clemson University and is employed by Babcock and Wilcox as a Fluid Systems Design Engineer.

The couple will reside in Lynchburg.

Play slated for production at ACHS

By Gayle Pugh

This fall, the Appomattox County High School Drama Club will present "Portrait of Jennie", December 3 and 4 at 8 p.m. in the high school auditorium. Admission will be $2 for children and $3 for adults.

The play starts in New York during the early 1930's at the start of the depression.

Eben is a struggling artist who finds it hard to make it from day to day. Eben is portrayed by David Williams, son of Mr. and Mrs. John W. Williams.

Jennie is a mysterious, charming young girl, who grows from a child to a woman through the play. She changes Eben's whole life around. Jennie is played by Susan Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Morris.

Gus (Richard Hamlett) is a cab driver who is content with the way things are and copes with the times. He is a close friend of Eben's.

Miss Spinney (Kelley Bowen) and Mr. Mathews (J. C. Rogers) are art dealers who give Eben his chance for fame and fortune.

Mrs. Jekes (Maria King) is a hot-tempered widow who runs the apartment building Eben lives in. She has a daughter named Anna (Renee Harris) who is attracted to Eben.

Emily (Gayle Pugh) is Jennie's best friend. She likes to be in the center of attention and does not like to be left out of anything going on in Jennie's life.

Arne (Ray Goode) is wild, spontaneous and just full of himself. He is a close friend of Eben from years past. Eben goes to live with him and his sister, Britta (Ladell Wright), on the coast during the final act. Britta is just the opposite of Arne.

The three-act play is a drama with enough comedy to make it relaxing and enjoyable to watch.

The cast members, sponsor, and crew members of the Drama Club have been working hard to bring you this entertaining presentation of "Portrait of Jennie." We hope you will all come out to see this sensational presentation.

Dress Rehearsal

SUSAN MORRIS (left), as Jennie, and Gayle Pugh, as Emily, rehearse their parts in the upcoming Appomattox County High School Drama Club production of 'Portrait of Jennie'. The play, which will be staged Dec. 3 and 4 at the high school auditorium, is described as a drama with enough comedy to make it relaxing and enjoyable to watch. Tickets to the three-act play will be available at the door. Cost is $3 for adults and $2 for children. (Photo by Allen Austin)

Happiness is 4-H

4-H Share-the-Fun programs are being held this week at Appomattox Elementary School. Top acts will be selected each day to perform in the county Share-the-Fun Show on Thursday, December 16, at Appomattox County High School. Share-the-Fun awards are provided by the American Federal Savings and Loan Association of Appomattox.

• • •

The Lucky Clover 4-H Club of Pamplin and the Red House Community 4-H group will be sharing Christmas customs in other lands during their December meetings. Members in their respective clubs will be presenting information on the various customs followed in foreign lands during the Christmas Season.

• • •

4-H'ers are again reminded that orders for Pine Seedlings are due in the Extension Office by December 10. In 1981 more than 70 4-H'ers planted loblolly pines through this special program that is sponsored by the Division of Forestry. Families wanting to purchase pines to plant to larger acreages should contact Mr. Wayne Bowman, Appomattox Forester with the Virignia Division of Forestry. Trees should be ordered before January 1 in order to insure delivery. Approximately 800 trees will plant an acre.

• • •

Judges for the County 4-H Share-the-Fun Show will be provided this year by Campbell County. In an attempt to obtain judges who will not know any of the participants, we will be exchanging judges with Campbell County. Appomattox residents will judge the Campbell County Share-the Fun Show and Campbell folks will be judging the Appomattox Show. Judging of the Appomattox Show will be held on Wednesday evening, December 15, during a dress rehearsal.

• • •

Tickets are still available for the 1983 Chevrolet Chevette which will be given away on December 21. All contributions for the car are tax deductible as all profits will be going to the Holiday Lake 4-H Educational Center.

Band Boosters to meet

There will be a meeting of the Appomattox County High School Band Boosters on Monday, December 6, 1982, at 7:30 p.m. in the school music room. All members are urged to attend.

The Appomattox County High School Band will be performing in the South Boston Christmas Parade at 11 a.m. on Sat., Dec. 4, 1982, and in the Farmville Christmas Parade at 2 p.m. on Sunday, December 5, 1982. The band will present its annual Christmas Concert on Monday, December 20, 1982, at 7:30 p.m. in the Appomattox County High School auditorium. The public is cordially invited to attend all of these events.
